

2021 Tim Hortons Canadian Curling Trials, December 4-12, 2021

1. Objective

Curling Canada is requesting expressions of interest for the hosting of the 2021 Tim Hortons Canadian Curling Trials. This event will decide Canada's two teams for the 2022 Winter Olympic Games in China.

2. Background

Curling Canada is the national sport governing body responsible for the development, promotion and organization of curling in Canada. In cooperation with its Provincial and Territorial Member Associations across Canada, Curling Canada provides programs and services to curlers of all ages.

The primary area of administration and the most financially consuming of Curling Canada's responsibilities are championships. On an annual basis, Curling Canada sanctions and conducts 11 national curling championship events. Approximately 12,000 competitive curlers from all provinces and territories enter play at the curling club level with the hopes of becoming one of the Canadian Champions crowned annually. The Canadian Curling Championships are:

Tim Hortons Brier - Canadian Men's Curling Championship

The Scotties Tournament of Hearts - Canadian Women's Curling Championship

The Mixed - Canadian Mixed Curling Championship

Everest Canadian Seniors - Canadian Senior Men's and Women's Curling Championships

New Holland Canadian Juniors - Canadian Junior Men's and Women's Curling Championships

The Canadian Wheelchair Curling Championship

USPORTS / CCAA Post-Secondary Curling Championships

Mixed Doubles Curling Championship

In addition to these Canadian Curling Championships, Curling Canada is also responsible for the following events:

Home Hardware Canada Cup

World Financial Group Continental Cup

Ford World Championships (when held in Canada)

Canadian Curling Pre-trials - Road to the Roar.

Tim Hortons Canadian Curling Trials - Roar of the Rings

3. Economic Impact Assessment

The 2017 Tim Hortons Canadian Curling Trials, was held at the Canadian Tire Centre in Ottawa, December 2 to 10. Over the course of the week, nine men's and nine women's teams competed for the opportunity to represent Canada at the 2018 Olympic Winter Games. Both the men's and women's teams featured many of the top curlers in the world, with many teams having significant international experience. In the end, Kevin Koe's team earned his first trip to the Olympics, while on the women's side Rachel Homan team earned their first trip to the Olympics.

The competition was enjoyed by almost 107,000 spectators and was watched by millions of viewers on live television over the course of the event. Spectators attending the event from across the country, along with the expenditures of the event host committee, the Trials generated a substantial economic benefit for the City of Ottawa and the Province of Ontario as a whole.

The 2017 event was supported through the efforts of over 550 volunteers. The last time a formal third party economic impact assessment was performed on the Trials was the 2009 event. At said event, visitor expenditures, combined with the operational expenditures and revenues of the host committee, members of the media, and others, totaled $10.7 million, resulting in a net increase in economic activity of $12.3 million throughout the Province, of which $8.5 million occurred in the host city. The total industry output (or gross economic activity) supported by that event was a total of $24.0 million (i.e. total economic impact).**

4. Timelines

Please see Appendix 7 for timelines for the bid process

5. Bid Process

Bid packages will be treated with confidentiality and as a 'closed' process, given the multitude of stakeholders and diverse interests which may be represented.

Curling Canada reserves the right not to accept any of and/or all of the bids at its sole and unfettered discretion.

While Curling Canada is seeking the best possible bid for this prestigious event, it is not obligated to accept the highest bid.

As above, bids must be in the form of written presentation only. In the unlikely event that a site visit is required, Curling Canada will be responsible for all related expenses. Curling Canada reserves the right to disseminate further information to all candidates throughout the bid process.
