Curling Canada is the national sport governing body responsible for the development, promotion and organization of curling in Canada. In cooperation with its Provincial and Territorial Member Associations across Canada, Curling Canada provides programs and services to curlers of all ages.

The primary area of administration and the most financially consuming of Curling Canada's responsibilities are championships. On an annual basis, Curling Canada sanctions and conducts 17 national curling championship events. Approximately 10,000 competitive curlers from all provinces and territories enter play at the curling club level with the hopes of becoming one of the Canadian Champions crowned annually. The Canadian Curling Championships are:

Tim Hortons Brier - Canadian Men's Championship

The Scotties Tournament of Hearts - Canadian Women's Championship

The Mixed - Canadian Mixed Championship

Everest Canadian Seniors - Canadian Senior Men's and Women's Championships

New Holland Canadian Juniors - Canadian Junior Men's and Women's Championships

Curling Club Championships

The Canadian Wheelchair Championship

USPORTS / CCAA Post-Secondary Championships

In addition to these Canadian Curling Championships, Curling Canada is also responsible for the following events:

- Potential regional broadcast coverage for the Host Committee to leverage.
- The Host Committee retains 100% of all ticket sales revenue and local sponsorship sales.
- The rights and profits to any 50/50 draws during the course of the event are 100% retained by the Host Committee.
- 112 athletes and 15 officials.
- A legacy from the event can be established for the benefit of curling in the region.
- Volunteer development and capacity enhancement for future events.
- Economic impact, as reported by previous host cities and assessments, is $1.0 to $1.5 million
- Hotel rooms booked by Curling Canada (not including fans/supporters) = 550 room nights

4. History of the Canadian Seniors

In 1965, Leo Johnson of Manitoba, the 1934 Brier champion, became the first winner of the Seagram Stone, the newly-minted Canadian Senior Men's title. Along with Marno Fredericksen, Fred Smith and Cliff Wise, Johnson's victory helped solidify the concept of Seniors curling.

It wasn't until 1973 that a Senior Women's championship was added to the roster of Canadian events, and that year it was a British Columbia team, led by Ada Calles, with Ina Hansen, May Shaw, and Barbara Weir, who helped inaugurate the Senior Women's competition.

In 2000, Glasgow, Scotland, added a Seniors exhibition series to its hosting of the World Championships, and in 2002, the World Seniors Championships became an official part of the Worlds in Bismarck, North Dakota. Canada's Senior Women's Champions, skipped by Anne Dunn, won the inaugural event: the USA men (Larry Johnston) took the men's title.
